21.07.2014

Heard the parties partly. The respondents submit that an amount of rupees one lakh has been sanctioned in favour of the petitioner but the counsel for the petitioner submits that in the peculiar circumstances of the case the persons concerned should be treated as dead and all benefits arising out of the death while on duty should be made available to the petitioner. This will be considered on the next date of hearing. In the meantime, the petitioner may accept the amount of rupees one lakh which has been sanctioned in her favour. The receipt of the amount will be without prejudice to her rights being agitated before this Commission.

List on 21.8.2014.

Copy of the order be sent to the respective parties.
