File No. BHRC/Comp. 4271/16

Sub: Non-payment of salary for the last 15 months to teachers of Minority schools in Munger.

Case of: Sh. Jyotirmaye Mukherjee (district Munger)

Sh. Jyotirmaye Mukherjee, Incharge Principal, Gorang Pathshala Balak Madhyamik Vidyalaya (Minority) Jamalpur, Munger has drawn the attention of BHRC towards the pathetic condition of minority schools in Munger district and non-payment of salary to the teachers for the last 15 months. Petitioner has informed that due to financial crisis he is unable to treat his old mother and sustain the educational expenses of his daughter undergoing graduate education at Kolkata. The petitioner is the lone teacher left in his school and cannot run to various offices for getting his salary.

2. Petitioner has also enclosed a news clipping dated 5th May 2016 appearing in Hindi daily (Prabhat Khabar) mentioning that teachers of minority and government aided schools in Munger have not received pay for the last 14 months. There were 14 such schools in Munger, 7 of which have closed due to government apathy. There have not been any appointment of Muslim or Bangla teachers in the last 15 years as a result of which almost 90% of teachers have retired.

3. Issue notices to the (i) Director, Higher Secondary Education, Bihar and (ii) District Education Officer, Munger to file status report in the Commission before 5th August, 2016 when the matter is listed next.

4. Copy of the order be sent to (i) Director, Higher Secondary Education, Bihar (ii) District Education Officer, Munger for necessary action and (iii) Principal Secretary, Education, Bihar & (iv) the petitioner for information.

5. The case be listed next on 5th August, 2016.
