9, Bailey Road, Patna

File No. BHRC/Comp. 4665/2014

(Suo Motu Cognizance)

Subject: High Court judge made to buy thermometer, gifts 50 to IGIMS.

23.02.2016

Deputy Medical Superintendent, IGIMS with Administrative Officer present.

This case was initiated suo motu on the press report appearing on 24.01.2014. The report mentioned that IGIMS does not have even basic amenities like thermometers. It was also mentioned that judge of the Patna High Court whose relative was admitted in the hospital found that there was no thermometer available to record the temperature of the patient therefore he purchased 50 thermometers and gifted them to IGIMS.

The Deputy Medical Superintendent and Administrative Officer of IGIMS accepted the facts. It is submitted that there was shortage of thermometers on that particular date and steps have been taken to ensure that there is no shortage of such equipments in the hospital. The Commission directs that such items be kept in store in excess so that at any time any replacement is needed it is available.

With these observations, the matter is closed.
